The Georgian Georgetown Middle/High School Georgetown, Massachusetts

DEDICATION

No member of the Class of 1997 will ever forget the true hero, Erik Holzapfel, with whom we shared our youth. He was a person who put others before himself, and who never seemed to run out of love. His courageous life ended too early, but his kind personality and brave struggle are the characteristics of Erik that will never perish. The Class of 1997 is proud to be "Erik Holzapfel's Class."

Erik was about being courageous under intense pressure and maintaining a joyful outlook while fighting through painful days. He exemplified the pride and honor inside each of us, never succumbing to pressure, and striving for happiness and love regardless of the hurdles blocking the path. He was a shining example of hope to all of us while he lived, and his memory will forever be with us.

Erik never quit. He loved his life, friends, and community. When we think of Erik, we will remember the happiness, friendship, and joyful memories. We will remember him as our proud hero and our wonderful friend. Erik's strength and his warm smile are still with us today, and his legacy is one that Georgetown will always treasure.

The future is approaching quickly, and there is one way to overcome the troubles we will all surely face, and that is to think of Erik. Recall some of his words, or think about Erik's heroic battle with cancer. Erik dealt with his adversity and left a positive impact on us each day of his short life. Have pride in yourself, as he did in himself, and remember our friend Erik when the times are difficult, for he will help us through.

We will remember him as a friend and a great person and will do so forever. We cherish his memory as a fighter against impossible odds, a strong and loving friend, and a great kid. We love you Erik, and we will never forget you.

Well? Where to begin, this was certainly a year to remember, with dust falling, pipes crashing, and strange smells filling the rooms, however we stuck it out and tried to make the best of it, especially poor Priv. How time flies, it seems like yesterday we came to the factory as it was so called, not knowing what to expect, and six years later we leave with certainty, and to the Class of '97 I can

They Pass Us By

Moments, precious moments,
the good ones and the bad.
The ones we share, the ones we hold,
and all the ones we've had.

They come as rain and flood our ground
then sink so deep within.
They fertilize our youthful walk, remind us where we've been.

Their value never ceases,
lest we cease to hold;
To hold these precious times within that keep from growing old.

As yesterday is gone,
good-bye will set it free;
And time will hold the thoughts that were
and they will always be.

As daylight fades to darkness,
so our time will pass.
So let this remain in thought,
forever may it last.

Hold them close, these precious moments and never will they die;
For moments, precious moments,
they quickly pass us by.

FAREWELL

Mr. Fraser,

Thank you for believing in us when no one else did. We truly appreciate your understanding and support. Thank you for all the help you have given us and the time you have invested in our class. We could not have done it without you.

The Class of 1997

Mr. Tardif,

Thank you for all of the years you have spent at Georgetown High School. We hope you have enjoyed your time here. You will be missed by many. The number of years that you dedicated to the Student Council and Close-Up program is both admirable and amazing. Enjoy your retirement.

THANK YOU

YEARBOOK STAFF

Years from now when you look back at your time at G.H.S. you will remember all of the smiles and good times we have shared. In putting together this yearbook, we have tried to capture a few of these smiles and good times.

As a class, we have stuck together, supported each other when times were tough, and celebrated together when things went our way. We were a class of individuals, yet we could always come together to support something we believed in.

Nature's first green is gold, Her hardest hue to hold.

Her early leaf's a flower, But only so an hour.

Then leaf subsides to leaf. So Eden sank to grief,
So dawn goes down to day. Nothing gold can stay.

— Robert Frost

Mrs. Clay and Mr. Luca, thanks for all your help in putting together this yearbook. Adam, Jill, Sarah, Tempe, and Jenn, we made a great team. All the early mornings and late nights really paid off! To the Class of 1997 — Good Luck, and never stop believing in your dreams.

Kate De Veau, Co-editor

The year we all thought would never get here is here. We, the class of 1997 are graduating! By now everyone knows what he or she is doing next year. Who thought that our high school years would go by so fast. We have been through so much. At G.H.S. we as a class, as friends have had our ups and downs but through it all we have arrived at the end of our senior year. Hopefully when you look through this yearbook you will see the many memories from kindergarten to senior year that we have captured.

Katie, Jill, Tempre, Sarah, and Jenn, thanks for making this experience such a memorable one. The Sunday mornings, before and during school really paid off. Mrs. Clay and Mr. Luca thanks for all the help you gave us in putting this yearbook together.

Now out to the REAL WORLD. GOOD LUCK CLASS OF 1997!!!!!!!

Adam Tidd, Co-editor

In November, a hijacked Ethiopian airliner crashes after running out of fuel. The crash occurs near a resort beach in the Comoros Islands in the Indian Ocean. At least 123 of the 175 people on board die, including the hijackers.

After 36 years, Central America's longest civil war ends when Indian rebels and military leftists sign a truce in Guatemala.

British Telecommunications agrees to purchase MCI Communications for up to $21 billion in November. The deal is the biggest foreign purchase of a U.S. company ever concluded.

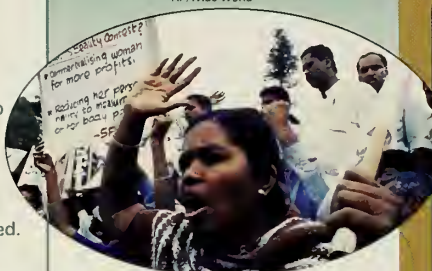

A U.N.-negotiated treaty banning chemical weapons worldwide is set to take effect in the spring. The treaty prohibits the development, production, stockpiling or use of chemical weapons, and calls for the destruction of existing supplies. The treaty is signed by 160 nations, including the U.S.
